This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Studienarbeit aus dem Jahr 2011 im Fachbereich Anglistik - Literatur, Note: 2,7, Universität Duisburg-Essen (Geisteswissenschaften), Veranstaltung: Proseminar: 'Man and Animal in Contemporary Fiction', Sprache: Deutsch, Abstract: Even the Greek definition anthropos, He Who Looks Up, is inaccurate. Man seldom looks above his own height [] (White 53). This acknowledgement by Merlyn gives a good impression of the whole tenor of the novel The Book of Merlyn. This work is part of the pentalogy The Once and Future King, which retells the Arthurian legend. In this book King Arthur, not a young boy anymore and facing a battle with his enemy Mordred, finds himself standing in front of a council consisting of various types of wise animals who deal with a difficult question: In what way does human kind distinguish itself from other species and how do they fit into the world It is common knowledge that neither modesty nor peaceableness is one of human kind s speciality. No species eliminates land, other creatures and even members of their own race in such great extent like mankind...
